The enclosed Form 668-A, Notice of Levy, attached the property and rights to property of the taxpayer named on the Form. However, because this person is entitled to certain appeal rights, do not send us any payment in response to this levy sooner than 45 days from the date on the enclosed form regardless of the reference to the 21 day period of the form.

During the 45-day period, do not let the taxpayer have the funds that have been attached, or you could be held liable for the amount that should have been surrendered plus a penalty described in section 6332 of the Internal Revenue code (IRC). See back of Part 1 of the Form 668-A for an excerpt of this section of the IRC and certain other IRC sections concerning levies.

If the taxpayer files an appeal with us, we will notify you to continue to hold any funds that this levy has attached until the taxpayer's appeal has been considered. If we determine that you should not send any funds to us, we will give you a levy release. Otherwise, after 45 days, please send us the amount that this levy has attached.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown above.

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT T MISINKAVITCH
Territory Manager

We figured the interest and late payment penalty to 03/21/2013

Although we have told you to pay the amount you owe, it is still not paid. This is your copy of a notice of levy we have sent to collect this unpaid amount. We will send other levies if we don't get enough with this one.

Banks, credit unions, savings and loans, and similar Institutions described in section 408(n) of the Internal Revenue Code must hold your money for 21 calendar days before sending it to us. They must include the interest you earn during that time. Anyone else we send a levy to must turn over your money, property, credits, etc. that they have (or are already obligated for) when they would have paid you.

If you decide to pay the amount you owe now, please bring a guaranteed payment (cash, cashier's check, certified check, or money order) to the nearest IRS office with this form, so we can tell the person who received this levy not to send us your money. Make checks and money orders payable to United States Treasury. If you mail your payment instead of bringing it to us, we may not have time to stop the person who received this levy from sending us your money.

If we have erroneously levied your bank account, we may reimburse you for the fees your bank charged you for handling the levy. You must file a claim with the IRS on Form 8546 within one year after the fees are charged.

If you have any questions, or want to arrange payment before other levies are issued, please call or write us. If you write to us, please include your telephone number and the best time to call.
